Dear Friend:

This letter is being sent to each of you with a request that you honor me with your presence in Newark this coming Friday, June 7th at The Grant Hotel, 78 West Market St., Newark, N. J. at 5 P. M.

There is something I am sure you would like to know, which I want to give you first-hand.

Please permit me to pay all expenses connected with the trip. If this day or hour does not suit any of you, let me know when it would be convenient and I will try and get the others to agree to the change.

I will appreciate your acceptance, and feel sure you will not regret coming.

Very truly yours,
